19.06.07 : Robin Hayward (Violin/ Bindelwald) and Olaf Bugiel (vocals, electric guitar)

20.06.07 : Oliver Schneller (König/percussion-elektronic) and DJ Workz (electronics)

Performances begin both nights at 8pm.

This concert series, organised by kunstraum_sumpfhahn, takes place daily from 1-30 June. Audiences meet at 7 pm at kunstraum_sumpfhahn (Koloniestrasse 38, 13359 Berlin). The concerts take place in various locations around the Soldiner Kiez from 8 pm.

The concerts are of two parts: a contemporary work by a Berlin based composer (in many cases written for this project) played by the Ensemble Zwischentöne and works by musicians and composers living in the district (Kiez) ranging from original compositions or interpretations of popular music to Karaoke. The goal of the ensemble is to place written, spoken, pictorial and musical language next to one another, and to verify (or reveal) their connection to social reality.

On 19 June ensemble Zwischentöne will play a work by Robin Hayward (b. 1969 in Brighton, England) Hayward's compositions take a conceptual and empirical approach to the instrumentation, exploring intonation and microtonal tuning systems.
